Washington, DC 20004-2128

Attention: Elizabeth W. Whittle
Counsel for Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation

Reference: Large Generator Interconnection Agreement

Dear Ms. Whittle:

On November 26, 2013, you filed, on behalf of Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation (RG&E), a Large Generator Interconnection Agreement (LGIA) between RG&E and Allegany Generating Station LLC (Allegany).¹ You state that the LGIA is a two-party interconnection agreement for continued provision of interconnection service to the Allegany generating station after its sale by RG&E to Allegany. The LGIA is designated as Service Agreement No. 2036 under the New York Independent System Operator, Inc.'s Open Access Transmission Tariff.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation - East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307, your submittal is accepted for filing, effective November 1, 2013, as requested.

The filing was noticed on November 27, 2013, with comments, interventions and protests due on or before December 17, 2013. Pursuant to Rule 214 (18 C.F.R. § 385.214 (2013)), to the extent that any timely filed motions to intervene and any motion to intervene out-of-time were filed before the issuance date of this order, such interventions are granted. Granting late interventions at this stage of the proceeding will not disrupt the proceeding or place additional burdens on existing parties.

This acceptance for filing shall not be construed as constituting approval of the referenced filing or of any rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, or practice affecting such rate or service contained in your filing; nor shall such acceptance be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation associated therewith; and such acceptance is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against RG&E.

This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Jignasa Gadani, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation - East
