Reference: Clarification to Tailored Availability Metric Tariff Provisions

On January 15, 2021, the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) filed revisions to its Market Administration and Control Services Tariff that provide clarity to its tailored availability metric rules (TAM Rules).¹ The proposed tariff revisions clarify that the TAM Rules do not apply to Special Case Resources and that new metrics will apply to all Intermittent Power Resources, which include landfill gas resources.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation - East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307 (2020), your submittal is accepted for filing, effective March 17, 2021, as requested.

The filing was noticed on January 15, 2021, with comments, interventions, and protests due on or before February 5, 2021. Pursuant to Rule 214 (18 C.F.R. § 385.214), to the extent that any timely filed motions to intervene and any motion to intervene out-of-time were filed before the issuance date of this order, such interventions are granted. Granting late interventions at this stage of the proceeding will not disrupt the proceeding or place additional burdens on existing parties.

This acceptance for filing shall not be construed as constituting approval of the referenced filing or of any rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, or practice
