Reference: Notice of Effective Date for Services Tariff Revisions, Docket No. ER21-486

On September 24, 2021, New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) submitted revisions to its Market Administration and Control Area Services Tariff and Open Access Transmission Tariff to reflect October 12, 2021 as the date on which the enhancements to NYISO's credit requirements for Transmission Congestion Contracts become effective,¹ in compliance with the directives in a January 12, 2021 Commission order.² Pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation – East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307 (2020), the submittal is accepted for filing, effective October 12, 2021, as requested.

The filing was publicly noticed, with interventions and protests due on or before October 15, 2021. Pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's regulations (18 C.F.R. § 385.214 (2020)), notices of intervention, timely-filed motions to intervene, and any unopposed motions to intervene out-of-time filed before the issuance date of this order are granted. Granting a late intervention at this stage of the proceeding will not disrupt the proceeding or place additional burdens on existing parties. No protests or adverse comments were filed.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in
