On September 13, 2021, New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) and New York Power Authority (NYPA) (together, Joint Filing Parties) filed an executed two-party Standard Small Generator Interconnection Agreement (SGIA) for the North Country Energy Storage project entered into by NYISO and NYPA, with NYPA as both the Connecting Transmission Owner and Interconnection Customer.¹ Joint Filing Parties state that the SGIA is labeled as Service Agreement No. 2648 under NYISO's Open Access Transmission Tariff (OATT). Joint Filing Parties also state that the SGIA is based upon NYISO's three-party pro forma SGIA that is contained in Attachment Z to the OATT, as modified to reflect that there are only two parties to the SGIA. Joint Filing Parties request that the SGIA be accepted for filing effective August 27, 2021.
