Reference: Large Generator Interconnection Agreement, Service Agreement No. 2657

On March 28, 2022, New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) and New York State Electric & Gas Corporation (NYSEG) (together, Filing Parties) filed a Large Generator Interconnection Agreement (LGIA) among NYISO, NYSEG, as the Connecting Transmission Owner, and High Bridge Wind, LLC, as the Interconnection Customer, designated as Service Agreement No. 2657 under NYISO's Open Access Transmission Tariff (OATT).¹ Filing Parties state that with limited exceptions, the LGIA conforms to NYISO's pro forma LGIA that is contained in Attachment X to the OATT. Filing Parties requested that the LGIA be accepted effective March 15, 2022.

Pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation – East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307 (2021), the submittal is accepted for filing, effective March 15, 2022, as requested.²

² See 18 C.F.R. § 35.3(a)(2) (2021).

The filing was publicly noticed, with interventions and protests due on or before April 18, 2022. Pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's regulations (18 C.F.R. § 385.214 (2021)), notices of intervention, timely-filed motions to intervene, and any unopposed motions to intervene out-of-time filed before the issuance date of this order are granted. Granting a late intervention at this stage of the proceeding will not disrupt the proceeding or place additional burdens on existing parties. No protests or adverse comments were filed.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed document(s); nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against the applicant.

This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713 (2021).
