Re: New York Independent System Operator, Inc., Docket No. ER11-2547-005, Change of Expected Implementation of 15 Minute Variable Scheduling at the PJM Interconnection, LLC Interface Keystone Proxy Generator Bus

Dear Secretary Bose:

Consistent with the New York Independent System Operator, Inc.'s ("NYISO") June 6, 2012 compliance filing in this Docket No. ER11-2547-005, the NYISO submits this letter to inform the Commission that the NYISO is delaying by one week the proposed implementation of 15 minute variable scheduling at the Keystone Proxy Generator Bus. This implementation had been scheduled for June 20, 2012 but the NYISO has determined operating conditions are not favorable for implementation on that date due to high load forecasts on and around that date. The NYISO intends to implement 15 minute variable scheduling at the Keystone Proxy Generator Bus on June 27, 2012.

As the NYISO indicated in its June 6, 2012 letter announcing the June 20, 2012 implementation, the NYISO and PJM Interconnection, LLC ("PJM") will only implement 15 minute scheduling if system conditions are determined to be acceptable for implementation by the NYISO and PJM system operators. The NYISO will provide advance notice to the greatest extent practical if the system operators determine that implementation is not possible on June 27, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ James H. Sweeney
