Re: Docket No. ER16-425-001, New York Independent System Operator –
Notice of Effective Date for Tariff Revisions Accepted by June 10, 2016
Order

Dear Secretary Bose:

On November 30, 2015, the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (“NYISO”) filed proposed tariff revisions to improve its scarcity pricing design (“Comprehensive Scarcity Pricing”).¹ On March 1, 2016, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (“Commission”) accepted the proposed revisions (“March 1 Order”).² The Commission directed the NYISO to “submit a further compliance filing with no less than two weeks’ notice of the proposed effective date” for the Commission-accepted revisions.³ On June 7, 2016, the NYISO submitted the required compliance filing to establish the effective date for the tariff revisions accepted by the March 1 Order.⁴

The March 1 Order also directed the NYISO to submit a compliance filing to clarify “its proposed Services Tariff and OATT provisions to clearly identify and state where they apply to shortage events versus scarcity events.”⁵ On March 29, 2016, the NYISO submitted the required
