Re: Docket No. ER16-425-000, New York Independent System Operator, Inc.
– Notice of Revised Effective Date for the Tariff Revisions Accepted by the March 1, 2016 Order

Dear Secretary Bose:

On November 30, 2015, the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (“NYISO”) filed proposed tariff revisions to improve its scarcity pricing design (“Comprehensive Scarcity Pricing”).<sup>1</sup> On March 1, 2016, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (“Commission”) accepted the proposed revisions (“March 1 Order”).<sup>2</sup> The Commission directed the NYISO to “submit a further compliance filing with no less than two weeks’ notice of the proposed effective date” for the Commission-accepted revisions.<sup>3</sup>

On June 7, 2016, the NYISO submitted a filing to establish the effective date for the tariff revisions accepted by the March 1 Order (“June 7 Compliance Filing”).<sup>4</sup> On June 21, 2016, the NYISO filed a notice informing the Commission that it was unable to proceed with implementing Comprehensive Scarcity Pricing for the June 21, 2016 market day (“June 21 Notice”).<sup>5</sup> The June 21 Notice provided that the NYISO would “submit a supplemental filing to provide a revised effective date” for the tariff revisions accepted by the March 1 Order.<sup>6</sup> The NYISO submits this filing to provide the revised effective date for such tariff revisions.

The March 1 Order also directed the NYISO to submit a compliance filing to clarify “its proposed Services Tariff and OATT provisions to clearly identify and state where they apply to shortage events versus scarcity events.”<sup>7</sup> On March 29, 2016, the NYISO submitted the required filing (“March 29 Compliance Filing”).<sup>8</sup> On June 10, 2016, the Commission issued an order accepting the March 29 Compliance Filing, subject to a requirement that the NYISO submit “a compliance filing with no less than two weeks’ notice of the proposed effective date” for the supplemental revisions to Rate Schedule 4 of the Services Tariff (“June 10 Order”).<sup>9</sup>

On June 16, 2016, the NYISO submitted a filing to establish a June 30, 2016 effective date for the supplemental revisions to Rate Schedule 4 of the Services Tariff accepted by the June 10 Order (“June 16 Compliance Filing”).<sup>10</sup> This filing does not seek any modification to the effective date for such supplemental tariff revisions.

I. Documents Submitted

1. This filing letter;
2. A clean version of the revisions to the Services Tariff accepted by the March 1 Order with an effective date of June 22, 2016 (“Attachment I”); and
3. A clean version of the revisions to the OATT accepted by the March 1 Order with an effective date of June 22, 2016 (“Attachment II”).

II. Notice of Revised Effective Date

In compliance with Ordering Paragraph C of the March 1 Order, and as a follow-up to the June 21 Notice, the NYISO hereby provides notice to the Commission that it deployed the software to implement Comprehensive Scarcity Pricing for the June 22, 2016 market day. Attachments I and II provide clean versions of the tariff revisions accepted by the March 1 Order with an effective date of June 22, 2016.
